Media Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: June 1, 2016

TITLE: Additional charges brought in Ashwaubenon Exposure cases.

Ashwaubenon, WI – After the arrest of Randolph Lill on May 23rd, 2016, two other Ashwaubenon cases have been cleared thanks to the help of local media.

A case was re-opened after the victim of a September 28, 2015 case called in reporting that Lill was the one who exposed himself to her at a different Ashwaubenon restaurant.

One more case re-surfaced from July of 2014 where a woman and her daughters came forward with information that Lill had exposed himself at yet a different Ashwaubenon restaurant.

The Brown County District Attorney's office has added these charges to the criminal complaint of Lewd and Lascivious Behavior as a Repeater and another count of Lewd and Lascivious Behavior.

Lill is scheduled for a Preliminary Hearing on June 9th. He remains in the Brown County jail.

Ashwaubenon Officials encourage anyone with information to contact their respective law enforcement agency.
